BARIUM SPRINGS, N. C., JULY-AUGUST 1957

Nos. 7 & 8

CHURCH DEDICATION AND HOMECOMING

Sunday, August 4th, will be Homecoming for all the alumni and friends of Barium Springs. Everyone is invited and asked to bring a picnic basket lunch to be spread together under the shade of the trees on the campus.

The Church Dedication ceremonies will take place in conjunction with the Morning Worship Service. Dr. W. Taliaferro Thompson from Richmond, Virginia, will be the guest minister to preach the dedicatory sermon. After the picnic lunch on the lawn, there will be an alumni gathering and following that will be open house on the campus.

This plan for Homecoming has been chosen because of the request of many people to change from Friday to Sunday with the services of worship. The office of the Alumni Association has made preparations for this and letters are going out to all those whose addresses are on file with the Association.

MEMORIAL FUND WILL CONTINUE

The Memorial Fund at Barium Springs will continue. Now that the church is paid for and will be dedicated, the funds will be made applicable to the education of the boys and girls who finish at Barium Springs. These young people who remain at the Home through their senior year in high school are indeed the children of the Home, their needs will have to be met from the Educational Fund. In times past there have been small amounts for this, but never enough to meet the needs. The Board of Regents unanimously adopted this plan and recommends it to all who would continue to remember their loved ones in this way. It seems altogether fitting that the memorial gifts would be for the boys and girls' education after they finish Barium Springs.

Plans have already been made for a number of the graduating class to enter college in the fall or to take other training. This, together with those who are already in the process of training or continuing their studies in school, means a great deal of extra money. All who have heard of this plan have been delighted that such a chance will be afforded for the remembering of their loved ones and carrying on the work with these boys and girls after their graduation from Barium Springs.

Beginning August 5th, the Memorial Funds will be made applicable to the Educational Fund, and boys and girls will be assured of an opportunity to pursue their training. All the people who have shared in the Memorial Fund through the years are invited to continue and to tell others of this opportunity of investment in boys and girls in the name of their loved ones.

FROM LITTLE JOE'S CHURCH

REV. ROBERT R. COLLINS, Minister

In the closing chapter of his letter to the Romans the Apostle Paul says to his friends, "I have longed for many years to come to you . . ." As you read the full chapter it is very evident that Paul anticipated his trip to Rome with genuine pleasure.

Anticipation is a wonderful thing for it enables us to look forward to events and occasions that we expect to be realized in the future. Those of us who worship Under The Steeple of Little Joe's Church know this quite well, for we are looking ahead with pleasure to August 4th when we hope that many of you will share with us the completion of a dream in the dedication of our new church. No doubt there are many of you across the Synod who have felt about Barium Springs and Little Joe's Church as Paul felt about Rome and can say with him, "I have longed for many years to come to you . . ."

If this be true let me urge you, as pastor of this church, to join us for an occasion that has been anticipated in the hearts of thousands of Presbyterians across our Synod for some years. Alumni of the Home will be celebrating their annual Homecoming in connection with the services of dedication. Dr. W. T. Thompson, former Moderator of our General Assembly, will deliver the dedicatory sermon.

Little Joe's Church is a lovely place of worship, but its true beauty cannot be captured in picture or word. Only as you enter its doors and join with the voices of God's children in hymns and prayers of thanksgiving and praise can you appreciate fully the meaning of this church in the life of Barium Springs. To all of you who have had a part in the building of this house of God and whose interest is deep because of loved ones remembered here, we extend a warm and sincere invitation to be present for the dedication services on August 4th at the eleven o'clock worship hour.

SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA	6,725.47			6,725.47

Report of The Board of Regents of The Presbyterian Orphans' Home at Barium Springs, North Carolina, to The Synod of North Carolina, June, 1957.

The Board of Regents would pause to give humble thanksgiving to Almighty God for His goodness made known in manifold ways in the life of the Home at Barium Springs. The earnest prayers of the people of the Synod, the generous contributions of the Presbyterians of the State of North Carolina and Christian people beyond the bounds of the Synod are evident proof that God's love dwells in the hearts of people, and that He directs them in providing for the children of the Home.

The Regents have met in two regular sessions since the Synod of North Carolina has convened. Through its executive committee and its subcommittees it has been in touch with the work of the Home. It is the unanimous conviction of the Board that the general state of welfare on the campus is good. The children have been blessed with excellent health. Through the work of the dental committee and the generous services of the dentist, Dr. Smith Kirk of Salisbury, an unusually fine work has been done on the teeth of the children. Instruction through the school has been adequate, the religious life on the campus is normal and its results are above average. While it is not the intent of the Board to paint a rosy picture over all, it is their intent to say that things have been good during the year just closed.

Knowing that the Synod of North Carolina is interested in the finances of the Home, the Board would say first that complete reports of the auditors have been placed on file in the Synod's office, that the requirements of the Stewardship Committee have been met adequately in the preparation of the budget, and that the books of the Home remain open for the inspection of any interested person at any time that he wishes to know the financial status of the Home.

The Board would call to the attention of the Synod of North Carolina the fact that the Thanksgiving Offering was a little lower last year than in previous years. It would also call to the attention of the Synod of North Carolina that the change of the church year, bringing in the necessity of an Every-Member Canvass in November has in a real sense affected the taking of the Thanksgiving Offering and, therefore, the amount received. The Board would express its appreciation to all the churches for their giving to the Home at Thanksgiving, and would ask the churches who have found difficulty in having the Every-Member Canvass and the Thanksgiving campaign at the same time, to make adequate provision, if the way be clear, for the Thanksgiving Offering.

Within the recent years the campus has been greatly benefited by the erection of some new buildings. In 1952, the gymnasium was completed. In 1955, the new church was finished, also two new cottages and two brick dwelling houses. The Board is happy to report to the Synod of North Carolina that two of the oldest cottages which were becoming dangerous to be used are now being replaced by two new buildings. These new cottages will be one-story, fire-proof buildings, capable of housing sixteen children—two children to the room. It has been designed so as to be attractive in appearance and efficient in function. It was the intent of the Board to so build these two new cottages that they would set the pattern for the future buildings which are yet to be erected, if and when the money is available. These two cottages will be ready for occupancy in the fall and have been made possible out of the special gifts through legacies of friends. Even as fine as it is to have these buildings, it does not yet begin to meet the pressing needs that prevail on the campus for additional housing, farm buildings, and warehouse and cold storage. These are pressing needs that always loom large in the thinking of the Board of Regents.

It is a happy fact that this summer will bring peaches and apples again for the boys and girls. The 600 peach trees are bearing well and the 800 apple trees are bearing adequately for the needs of the children, though not as abundantly as in former years. The gardens and farm are about average in prospect for the summer needs. Even in spite of some dry weather last year, a new peak was reached in the harvest of small grain—over 6,000 bushels. The crop is not quite as promising this year. Hogs sufficient for barbecue and country ham are now being fattened in the pens. The white-faced herd continues to grow. One of the most recent gifts was from the Morrocroft Farm, Mr. James J. Harris of Charlotte sending five of his thoroughbreds up to join the Barium herd.

Next year may hold something new in the farming at Barium Springs for the Soil Conservation Unit on the Third Creek watershed proposes, if the way be clear, to construct a dam on the Barium property for conservation purposes. This lake will afford opportunity for irrigation on one section of the farm and this will become the garden area. High hopes are entertained that this project will be approved and that this work can go forward. If anyone has extra irrigation equipment which he wishes to dispose of, let the Board of Regents know.

The Board of Regents would call to the attention of the Synod of North Carolina the need for qualified leadership on the campus. It is difficult to secure enough capable help to properly care for the boys and girls of the Home. It is necessary to reduce the cottage loads to where one person can satisfactorily serve that number. This calls for a larger number of persons on the staff and also the type of training being done calls for persons who are qualified in mind and body and spirit to render effective service with a large group of children. The ministers and elders in the Synod of North Carolina could be of real service in encouraging such persons to seek employment at Barium Springs.

The Spring of 1957 brought to a close a grand era in the life of Barium Springs. Many years ago when the life of the children was pretty largely work and school and not much play, a program of half-day work and half-day school prevailed. Under the administration of Dr. Joseph B. Johnston this was changed and the school was made to conform with the regular County School system. An athletic

Children Return From Vacations

The two and one-half weeks vacation period for the boys and girls of the Home ended on July 16th, bringing back from over the Synod all the children who had been visiting with parents, grandparents, uncles, aunts, other relatives, and friends. The vacation season was begun a little early this year because the harvest having been completed, it was necessary to get the vacation time over so that everybody would be back in to take care of the peach season. Many busy days lie between the vacation time and the opening of school. The late summer gardens are to be taken care of, the peaches are to be picked and canned, the vegetables will be ready for canning, the Homecoming and the Dedication of the Church will be a highlight in the midst of these days.

On August 15th, Coach R. G. Calhoun will be returning to the campus and calling for the football squad to get ready for the fall schedule. The first half of the summer was indeed busy. A large number of boys and girls attended the Young People's Conferences and the Pioneer Camps at Camp Grier. A Bible School was held for the younger children. The grain was harvested and the hay was baled and the spring gardens were taken care of. With an increase of fifty in the herd more work is necessary down around the dairy barn and the beef herd. A fine work program has been carried on and the children have been especially good in growing and gathering food for the table and the pantry, not only for the summer, but for the winter days to come.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF REGENTS

program was begun to introduce the children to boys and girls of other schools. This performed a magnificent service for the Home. The Board recently adopted the plan which goes a step further in that the boys and girls of the high school are to be a part of the high school at Troutman, N. C., thus better fitting them to live in the community after graduating from Barium Springs. So, as the seniors of 1957 recessed from the halls of the Elementary School Building, high school commencements on the campus became a thing of the past. While there is a bit of sadness in the passing of any fine custom, there is also joy in the anticipation of the larger relationships and the better service to be offered to these boys and girls in the school at Troutman. A new high school building with a student body of 400 fine boys and girls working together will be a better thing than a small group isolated on the campus.

One of the great days in the life of Barium Springs is yet to come. On August 4th, 1957, there will be the dedication of the new church building. The Memorial Fund which began nearly two decades ago has continued and has now reached the point where the total indebtedness of the church will be erased by that date. The dedication service has been set, and Dr. W. Taliaferro Thompson, past moderator of the General Assembly, will be the speaker. It will also be Homecoming for the alumni and friends. A basket lunch will be served under the trees and the alumni gathering will be the feature of the afternoon's exercises. All who have seen this church agree that it has fulfilled the three-fold function for which it was designed: first, to glorify God; second, to be a fitting memorial; and, third, to be an inspiration to the worshippers on this campus. It is with humble gratitude to the Head of the Church that the Regents report to you now the dedication to come of this edifice.

The Memorial Fund, through which this church has been built, will continue. The Regents have already taken the proper action to continue this Fund and to use the money derived therefrom for the further education and training of the boys and girls who graduate from Barium Springs. Up until the present time, money has been insufficient to meet the needs of these boys and girls who, after high school graduation, continue to be in a real sense the children of the Church and ought, therefore, to have someone to provide for their needs for additional education and training. All who have heard of this decision have ex-

We continue to accept this responsibility in the full knowledge that we, along with the children, rest in the hearts and prayers of the people of this Synod. We would call upon the people of the Synod of North Carolina to continue to remember the work and workers of this Home and the boys and girls who live here, that the Will of God may be done at Barium Springs.

COTTAGE NEWS

Rumple Hall

Hi There—

We are back again with the news of our cottage. The Howard Cottage girls are not the only "Beanstringers" any more because we have been stringing beans a lot recently.

We certainly did enjoy ourselves when we were invited to Statesville to the carnival. Some of us over-did the riding a little bit but recovered quickly.

We have really been scrubbing lately trying to get everything spic and span before we leave for our vacation. However, we have been so excited about vacations, maybe the scrubbing has not been as thorough as it should have been.

Hope everybody has a happy summer—see you in September!

Howard Cottage

Hi!

Well it's the Beanstringers again with their news. We have two birthdays in July and August—Mary Ann Mc-Bennett's and Martha Trivette's. Mary Ann's is July 19th and Martha's is August 9th.

We have nine girls in our cottage taking piano. They are Beverly Hyde, Brenda Shepherd, Nancy Joyner, Lou Anna Bridgers, Linda Sue Medlin, Elva Medlin, Vicki Bradford, Martha Trivette, and Diane Kiser.

Last Sunday was Mr. McClure's birthday. Miss Sims', Miss Jackson's, and Miss Bell's girls and Miss Winnie's boys surprised him by making a birthday cake for him. We all sneaked up to the house with the cake and hid it in the garage. Then we went on the porch and knocked on the door. When he opened it we started singing Happy Birthday. Boy! was he surprised!

We all are getting ready and looking forward to vacation and we hope everyone will be happy.

The Beanstringers.
